

Benjamin Godsey was appointed to the Hawaii Prepaid Health Care Advisory Council in September 2006. Mr. Godsey earned his Bachelor's of Arts degree in Biology from Pomona College and earned his Master's in Business Administration from the University of Chicago, concentrating in Finance and Entrepreneurship. Mr. Godsey currently serves as President of Finance and Operations for ProService Hawaii, overseeing the delivery of payroll, health and workers' compensation benefits as well as providing human resource and safety services for over 500 small and medium sized companies. He works with health care carriers and vendors to lower administrative costs of services and promotes employee education to better manage the utilization of health care services.

During his leisure time, Mr. Godsey paddles, golfs, fishes and runs and, most of all, both he and wife enjoy playing with their son.
